

When beginning a new festival, there are many questions. Butts Mill Farm hopes that the following information will be helpful.

Location: Butts Mill Farm, located in Pine Mountain, Georgia, both are a strong, well established tourist area.

The Farm: With a 15 year track record for entertaining the public, this 80 acre farm featuring a covered bridge that was built in the style of Horace King is an ideal location for a festival.

The Farm features large oak shade trees, wading, cane-pole fishing and walking trails - situated on the banks of Turkey Creek, as well as, an amphitheater.

There are free play areas for children, and established buildings that will be used for The Market, Carriage House Bingo, Expo Barn and 4-H Tent Exhibit.

There are farm animals to pet and feed, horses to ride, a hayride and other activities (Go-Cart Track, Miniature Golf, Horseback Riding, Kiddie Train Rides. The place where you can get back in touch with nature.

Quality (juried) Vendors: Vendors by invitation only and limited number in each category.

Community Participation: School Day Program which includes one free pass per student, families will visit throughout the weekend. Local entertainment, Special Church Invite and Area Sponsor Businesses.

Marketing: Website, Facebook, Printed materials, Outdoor Ads. Most material will include information about vendors and sponsors. (Note: The sooner we receive your information, the better.)

Security: Butts Mill Farm is a gated facility and security will be provided during event.
